ORC 121.22(G)(6) provides that consideration of "[d]etails relative to the security arrangements and emergency response protocols for a public body or a public office, if disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably be expected to jeopardize the security of the public body or a public office." - (1) the subject of the meeting must relate to the security arrangements and emergency response protocols for a public body or a public office; and,
- (2) public disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably be expected to jeopardize the security of that public body or public office.
